

Carsten: The global power play is far from over

There's so much unfinished business surrounding tariffs and the trade war. Luckily, Carsten Brzeski can make sense of where we are and what it means for the world right now. And read more of Carsten's thoughts here

The global power play is far from over

Thought the summer would give everyone a bit of a break from the chaotic tariff and trade war? Think again. ING's Carsten Brzeski says we're in the midst of a global power play, and even if trade deals with the US and other countries appear to be in place, they may not be all that they seem. He tells us just what that means for America, Europe and possible imminent interest rate cuts.
