

Garvey: Another market tantrum's on its way

Brace yourself! Another taper tantrum could well be on the way soon if the Fed signals it'll reduce the amount of government debt it buys. ING's Regional Head of Research in the Americas, Padhraic Garvey, looks at the implications

Garvey: Another market tantrum is on the way

If you know anything about the bond market in 2013, you'll know what a market tantrum is all about. And ING's Padhraic Garvey says we could well be heading for another in the second half of the year, caused by central banks reducing the number of government bonds they buy. So what's at stake and what will the catalyst be?
