

Knightley: No plain sailing but 5% growth in the US this year

A Joe Biden presidency, along with coronavirus vaccines and Democrat control of the US House and Senate, could result in a growth rate of more than 5% in the States this year

No plain sailing, but 5% growth in the US this year

What will a Joe Biden presidency mean for America's economy? ING's James Knightley in New York says anyone expecting a radical shift could be disappointed. But with household finances looking in pretty good shape and the rollout of Covid-19 vaccines, he's expecting +5% growth in the US in 2021.
