

Patterson on oil: 3 reasons why it should continue rising

Brent crude has traded as much as 10% higher so far this year to levels we last saw before the pandemic. A weak dollar is helping as has a Saudi production cut. ING's Warren Patterson says we could still see some near-term consolidation but an average of $60 a barrel for ICE Brent in the fourth quarter is easily achievable

3 reasons oil should continue to rise this year

ING's Head of Commodity Strategy, Warren Patterson, on why we expect oil to rise still further this year
