Watch: Brace for Trump's 'liberating' Tariff Day in April

The next round of US tariffs is set to be announced on 2 April. It'll be the latest salvo in the deepening trade war between the United States and the rest of the world. President Donald Trump says he's looking forward to what he called a liberating day

Brace for 'liberating' Tariff Day in April

Donald Trump says his next round of US tariffs will be a 'liberating day' for America. And investors are waiting to see just what will be announced on 2 April. Our Senior Economist, Inga Fechner, tells us that the US President doesn't seem too concerned about the market backlash from previous tariff rounds and assesses just where we are in the deepening global trade war.
