Europe's problems just got bigger with Trump's election victory

If it's 'America First' with a newly elected Donald Trump, then Europe's problems just got bigger. In fact, given the prospects of tariffs and US deregulation, our Carsten Brzeski says the chances of the continent falling into recession are really high. But there are also opportunities. Mr Trump's election could be the catalyst Europe needs to really boost its competitive edge and sort out its structural problems
