

Watch: More trouble ahead for commodity markets in 2023

Unique challenges have led to an extraordinary year for commodity markets in 2022. After a prolonged period of high volatility and increased uncertainty, Head of Commodities Strategy Warren Patterson says we aren't out of the woods just yet

More trouble ahead for commodity markets in 2023

Supply risks have dominated a difficult and highly volatile year for commodity markets. While demand concerns appear to have taken the driver's seat as we approach year-end, current challenges show no signs of abating and continue to cloud our outlook for 2023
