

Watch: The dollar's still got the groove

As tightening cycles for major central banks draw to a close, volatility has hit the lowest levels seen so far this year. With US activity set to slow and the disinflation story expected to pick up speed over the coming months, ING's Chris Turner delves into the details of what this could all mean for FX markets

The path ahead for FX markets

In a quiet summer period for FX markets, interest rate volatility has dropped off as central banks reach the end of their tightening cycles. In our latest edition of FX Talking, the team delves into what could be next for the G10, EMEA, Latam and Asia FX spaces.
