

Watch: The European coronavirus response; is it enough?

Expect more spending commitments to be promised by eurozone governments in the coming weeks. That's Bert Colijn's prediction as he compares what individual countries are already pledging amid the Covid-19 pandemic

The European response: Is it enough?

European governments are spending billions of euros trying to shore up their economies amid the coronavirus crisis. ING's Bert Colijn says although there's little coordination between eurozone member states, the plans are similar and it's likely we'll see yet more financial pledges before this is over.
