

Watch: The many short term events shaping Europe

What will become of Europe over the next decade? While Covid-19 is clearly the number one concern at the moment, the continent is facing longer-term challenges

The many short-term events shaping Europe right now

The spread of the coronavirus may be the most acute crisis facing the eurozone right now, but what will shape it in the coming decade? Will we remain in the low growth, low rate environment? What about productivity? What about ageing? What about digital transformation? All key themes for ING's Carsten Brzeski to explore in our latest series.
