

Watch: What COP29's dramatic closing chapter could mean for corporates

COP29 has drawn to a close following weeks of charged negotiations between countries, with a final – albeit fiercely criticised – conclusion being reached in the form of a trillion-dollar deal yesterday morning. So what exactly should corporate leaders be taking away from this year's divisive conference in Baku?

What COP29's dramatic closing chapter could mean for corporates

ING's Coco Zhang on which key messages corporate leaders should be paying attention to from this year's UN Climate Change Conference in Azerbaijan.

We discuss this topic in more detail in our latest opinion piece here.
