

Watch: Why the Covid-19 stimulus measures aren't always what they seem

Governments around the world have pledged billions to help their struggling economies during the coronavirus crisis. But ING's Rob Carnell in Singapore says the quoted figures aren't the full story. In Asia, some of the fiscal measures announced also include things like 'soft loans' and deferred payments which will do little to boost GDP growth

Why the Covid-19 stimulus measures may not be all that they seem

Rob Carnell, ING's Head of Asia-Pacific Research, on the stimulus measures announced by countries across the continent
