

Webinar: The 'global euro' 100-day report card

100 days after Christine Lagarde's call for a 'global euro', Europe is eyeing its chance to make the euro the safe asset of choice. Join our expert panel for a live webinar as they discuss FX reserves, investment flows, and regulatory progress. Register here to secure your spot

In early September, it will be 100 days since ECB President Christine Lagarde declared this was the moment for a 'global euro'. With investors falling out of love with US assets, Europe could step up and make the euro the safe asset of choice.

Join us for an insightful webinar with Chris Turner (Global Head of Markets), Dmitry Dolgin (Chief Economist, CIS), Michiel Tukker (Senior European Rates Strategist) and Marine Leleux (Sector Strategist, Financials) who will delve into the progress made over the past 100 days, analysing the latest FX reserve and trade data, international investment flows in government and private sector debt markets, as well as evaluating advancements in key regulatory initiatives.
